

AL-FATIHAH (THE OPENING)

In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds,

The Beneficent, the Merciful,

Master of the day of Recompense.

You do we serve and You do we beseech for help.

Guide us on the right path,

The path of those upon whom You have bestowed favours,

Not those upon whom wrath is brought down,

nor those who go astray.

Acknowledgements

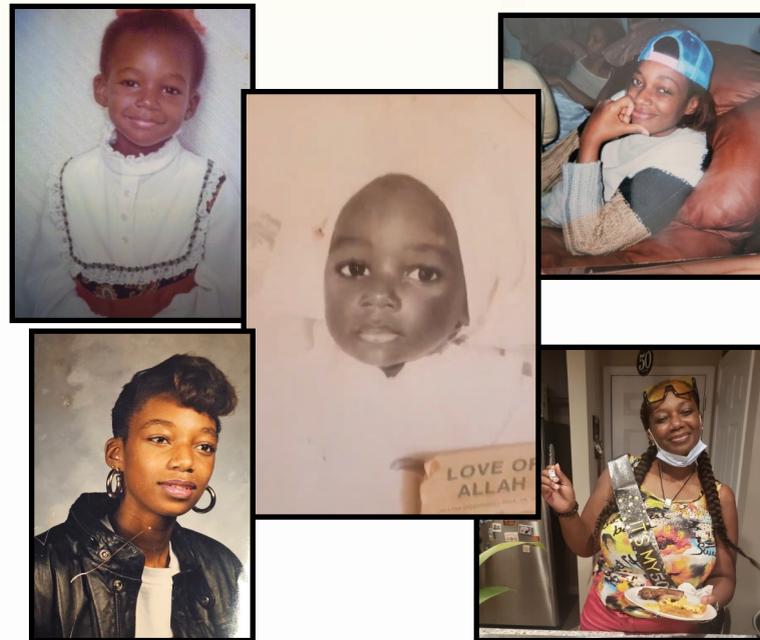

With deep appreciation, the family of Samia would like to acknowledge the unmatched support, outpouring of love, words of encouragement, and prayers during this time of grief.

The phone calls, the kind gestures, and just the overall love has been a source of comfort and strength, and we appreciate each and every gesture of sympathy. Our hearts are full.

We ask that you keep us in your thoughts and prayers as we continue to move forward.

Obituary

"She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs WITHOUT FEAR OF THE FUTURE." - Proverbs 31:25

Samia Louise Dawson was born in Lansing, Michigan, to Timothy and Barbara Muhammad on July 21, 1970. She was one of their seven children and was delivered the nickname "Boobe." Her parents were pioneers of the Nation of Islam which led her to become a member of the MGT. Samia was devoted to making God her foundation and she had a mission in life which was to "give it to Allah" in every situation.

Samia grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio with the love of learning and always eager to expand her knowledge through books, religion, and traveling. She was a mother of three children and grandmother of six children. Samia was all about connecting with the next person and looking for ways to create a business. If she wasn't with her sisters, her lifelong friend Uvonna (Nunnie), or her children and grandchildren, you were sure to run into her in the most unexpected place, dropping jewels and networking with somebody.

Samia earned her GED prior to going on to complete her Associate's degree at the University of Cincinnati for Business Administration. Full of a multitude of ideas and goals, the young, courageous entrepreneur presented Youth Unlimited, LLC to the world in 2005. Starting as a summer camp, the business branched into a variety of programs like after school care, tutoring, and volunteering opportunities for teens. Samia was selfless with her dedication to the youth which allowed Youth Unlimited to go on for almost 20 years. She debuted her consignment shop, Carol's Closet, in Silverton, Ohio where she built lifelong relationships with members in the community.

Samia was previously departed by her parents, Timothy and Barbara Muhammad and her brother, Timothy Dawson. To keep her memory alive, she is lived through by her children: Sasha, Bilal, and Elijah; her sisters: Stephanie, Sonja, Sabrina (Eugene), Sadara, and Sayyeda; grandchildren: De'Ziya, Kemaury, Mi'Laya, Bia, Bashir, and Lamont; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Samia will be missed but always considered on how she impacted lives, shaped futures, and inspired many individuals. She is more alive than ever!

2 TIMOTHY 4:7

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

"Life is a part of death. Life is something to see. One day we will all have to meet the Master. Don't take it light, it comes quick. I am nothing but thankful. IT'S ALL LOVE. You are a beautiful family. May Allah see you through."

~Samia
