Claudetta

JOHNSON

The Obituary

Claudetta C. Johnson was born on December 17, 1940, in Summerlee, West Virginia, to Eddie and Jelaner (Trotter) Caldwell. She departed this life on Tuesday, August 4, 2026, at the blessed age of 85.

After relocating from West Virginia to Hamilton, Ohio, Claudetta attended Roosevelt Junior High School. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and carried her faith with her throughout her life. She was a former member of Israel Baptist Church and Berean Missionary Baptist Church. Most recently, she worshiped at Revelation Baptist Church in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Claudetta's warm and loving personality left a lasting impression on everyone she met. She never met a stranger and dedicated her life to caring for and supporting her family and friends.

Affectionately known as "Cloodie," Claudetta was a natural leader with a strong and spirited personality. She could be a "firecracker" when the situation called for it, but her heart was always full of love. She often lived by her philosophical sayings, "Go hard or go home" and "Nothing given was earned." Honest and straightforward, she never beat around the bush, yet she was always caring and compassionate, often putting the needs of others before her own.

Claudetta retired from Avon after many years of service. Earlier in life, she worked as an assistant teacher and cook. She was an exceptional cook who enjoyed bringing people together through food and fellowship. In her leisure time, she enjoyed playing bingo, visiting the casino, watching sports, and cheering for her favorite basketball team, the Xavier Musketeers. She also loved dancing, hosting gatherings, and spending quality time with family and friends.

A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Claudetta was fiercely protective of her children and deeply committed to her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Johnson; daughter, Teri Hughley-Young; grandson, Robert Curtis "C.J." Goins Jr.; and granddaughter, Layla Rose Thomas.

Claudetta leaves to cherish her memory five children: Leonard T. Hughley, Sheila L. (David) McCloud, Carla Hughley, Jermaine D. (Mikeya) Hughley, and Randall M. Johnson; along with a host of devoted grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

Forever in our Hearts

Our Guardian Angel

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth
me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art
with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the Lord forever.

John 14:1-6

1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God,
believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions:
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know,
and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord,
we know not whither thou goest;
and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way,
the truth, and the life: no man cometh
unto the Father, but by me.
