Acknowledgment

We the family of Michele Carter, would like to Thank everyone for their love and acts of kindness during our time of bereavement. No thought or deed of love has gone unnoticed. We are grateful for the support. May God continue to bless each and every one of you!

Revelation 21: 3-4

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Obituary

Celebrating the Life of Michele “Missey” Carter

Michele “Missey” Carter was born on August 20, 1953, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Ruth Jones and Charles Strader, Jr. Raised alongside her parents and siblings, Michele carried the love and values of family with her throughout her life.

A proud graduate of Aiken High School, Class of 1971, Michele became one of Cincinnati’s most beloved in-home childcare providers. To generations of families, she was affectionately known as “Ms. Missey.” Her caring spirit and genuine love for children made her a trusted and cherished presence in the lives of many.

Michele was the life of the party, known for her love of fashion, hair, and nails—and for always knowing how to dress to impress. Her creativity extended beyond fashion; she could knit nearly anything and turn coloring into a masterpiece. She also had a sharp and curious mind, famously able to complete three crossword puzzles before anyone else could finish one.

At 72, Michele leaves a legacy of love, laughter, creativity, style, and countless lives touched. She will forever be remembered as “Ms. Missey” — a woman whose presence could fill a room and whose memory will remain in the hearts of all who knew & loved her.

She also leaves behind a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends whose lives she touched and who will forever carry her love, laughter, and memory in their hearts.

Tributes & Remembrance

A Word from the Family

Sister, Twin, Friend. Our outings, conversations, laughs and cries together will bond us forever until we meet again. You kept everyone smiling or in a positive atmosphere. Always one to be supportive when things got unraveled or unexpected, positive or negative. You'll be in my heart forever. I Love You. – Mike

To my mother in heaven. Thank you for always loving me and guiding me. Though you are no longer here with me, I can still feel your presence. You are always in my heart, and I will always love you dearly. – Greg

In loving memory of a wonderful mom, who taught me from an early age how to be courageous and compassionate. I'll never forget the influence you had on my life with your unconditional love and wise counsel. Thank You. – Alicia

Mom, we've been through thick and thin together. You've fought a hard battle and I'm grateful that I've been able to stand by your side. You may be gone from my sight, but never from my heart. I carry your love in everything I do. Your love will never fade; it lives forever in my heart. Love You. – Terrence
