

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Acknowledgements

The family of of Ronnie D. Phillips would like to express our sincere appreciation for the love and kindness that has been shown to us. Your actions have helped sustain us during this trying time.

May God bless each and every one of you!

~ The family

The Final Tribute. A Service by:

Derrick Myers, Licensed Funeral Director
THOMPSON HALL & JORDAN FUNERAL HOME
11400 Winton Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45240 513-742-3600
ThompsonHallJordan.com

IN LOVING Memory OF

RONNIE D. Phillips

MEMORIAL SERVICE

SATURDAY,
JULY 25TH
@ 11:00 AM

PHILIPPIAN MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
1806 BREWSTER AVENUE
CINCINNATI, OHIO 45207

PASTOR DERRICK D. MYERS

His Life's Story

Ronnie Dale Phillips was born on January 1, 1974, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Ronnie Harden and Callie Phillips. On July 4, 2026, God called him home to eternal rest.

There is something especially meaningful about the dates that framed Ronnie's life. He entered the world on New Year's Day, a day that symbolizes fresh beginnings, hope, and promise. He departed this life on Independence Day, a day celebrated for freedom. It is a fitting reflection of his journey—that the one who began life on a day of new beginnings entered eternity on a day that reminds us of the greatest freedom of all: freedom in Christ. His life was beautifully bookended by two holidays that remind us both to look forward with hope and to rejoice in the promise of everlasting life.

Ronnie received his education through Cincinnati Public Schools and proudly graduated from Western Hills High School. At an early age, he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized at Philippian Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Henry Wilson. His love for God was genuine and unmistakable. Whether through his heartfelt prayers, his personal testimony, or his faithful presence in worship, Ronnie never hesitated to share what the Lord had done in his life.

A devoted member of Philippian Missionary Baptist Church, Ronnie faithfully served in both the Choir and the Male Chorus. One song, in particular, became closely associated with him: "It's Cool Over Yonder by the Banks of Jordan." Whenever Ronnie sang those familiar words, they carried a message of hope, reminding all who listened that a better day awaited God's children beyond this life.

Outside of church, Ronnie enjoyed the simple pleasures that brought him happiness. He loved listening to Christian radio, watching professional wrestling, and reading comic books. These interests brought him joy and reflected his unique personality and youthful spirit.

Of all the relationships Ronnie cherished, none was more precious than the one he shared with his beloved mother. His love and devotion to Callie Phillips were evident to everyone who knew him. He made it a priority to see her every day, ensuring she knew she was loved and never alone. Ronnie exemplified what it means to be a devoted and caring son, and his unwavering love for his mother will remain one of the greatest testimonies of his life.

Ronnie was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Shirlene MacQueen; his uncles, James Stratton, Andrew Stratton, Joseph Stratton, and Robert MacQueen.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory his devoted mother, Callie Phillips; his uncles, David Phillips, Clarence Stratton Jr., James Leo MacQueen, Samuel Stratton, and Arthur MacQueen; his aunt, Ester Stratton; his best friend, Antwan Davis; and a host of other family & friends.

IN LOVING Memory OF RONNIE D. Phillips

ORDER OF SERVICE

Musical Prelude.....Soft Music
Opening Selection..... Glory Hallelujah
Scripture..... Min. Gregory Griffin
Prayer .....Min. William Edwards II
Selection.....PMBC Music Ministry
Acknowledgments & Resolution.....Sis. Roslyn Austin Remarks.....Ministers & Deacons,
Family & Friends (2 Minutes)
Selection .....PMBC Music Ministry
Eulogy .....Pastor Derrick D. Myers
Benediction.....Pastor Derrick D. Myers
Recessional.....Clergy, Family & Friends

Repast

Min. Percy Hubbard Fellowship Hall immediately following service.