

A Mother's Farewell to her Children

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near,
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky*

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Allie Tee Cook was born on May 25, 1961, in Cincinnati, Oh to the late Yvonne R. Cook and Charles F. Cook. She is the third oldest of ten. She is preceded in death by her son, Leronn Cook.

Allie attended Woodward High School.

Allie accepted Christ as her Savior and loved God and Sunday mornings at New Horizons Covenant Fellowship.

Allie enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest. She loved taking selfies and sharing them with family and being a fashionista. She was known for opening her home and heart to everyone. Allie loved spending time with family and friends, especially hosting backyard barbecues where laughter, good food “Chef Tee”, and cherished memories were shared. One of her proudest moments was raising her grandson Leronn. Above all, her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren and watching them grow and surrounding them with love.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving children, Tisha Bradley, Janetta Cook, and Jon Cook. Siblings: Althea Holt (Christopher preceded in death), Charles Cook, Terry Cook, Sr. (Kim), Yvonne Cook, Yvette Cook, Andrea Cook, Charlotte Cook, Lawrence Cook Sr. (Mitzi) and Tisha Wilkins (Dwayne preceded in death); a host of grandchildren and many dear family members and friends.

Allie will be remembered for her warm smile, her love of family and her kind spirit. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched.

Though she will be deeply missed, her memory will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

To My Mother

My heart, my best friend

This is way harder than I thought to accept and take in,

Although my heart is broken, this you may know

Just why mom why did you have to go

This was too early, way too soon I can't compete with God when he says he has your room

You've always taught us to pray and stay strong

It's harder now, now that your gone

I made you a promise and that promise I shall keep,

So for now I'll seal this letter to you ma with a big hug and a kiss

Rest in peace my love just know you'll forever be missed

Love Pooh
